“Harris Higer appoints PSV Glass as complete Glazing solution for Higer Bus & Coach vehicles in Ireland & the UK”

Dublin, Ireland, October 28, 2014 – PSV Glass LLP & Harris Group two names synonymous within the Commercial automotive industry have signed a distribution agreement to supply all OE & aftermarket glazing for the Higer Bus & Coach Brand in Ireland & the UK. This includes stocking the complete range of glazing units for each new model as it is released and combining the renowned PSV Glass customer support programme to ensure that when Higer glass is needed it is only a phone call away. The agreement will also cover installation at any of the appointed PSV Glass installation centres nationwide and mobile installation at customers request and in an emergency situation.

Higer Bus & Coach, one of the top Bus & Coach producers in China, will commence right hand drive sales and distribution in the United Kingdom & Ireland with its Dublin based sole concessionaire The Harris Group in November 2014 with estimated end user deliveries expected in early January 2015. Established over 50 years, the Harris Group is best known as the sole concessionaire and assembler for Hino trucks (part of the Toyota group) distributed in Ireland & the UK.

PSV Glass has evolved to become the UK's principal Bus, Coach, Motorhome and Rail glass distributor and installer by continually meeting the demands of its customers. This broad spectrum of customers ranges from the large Transport Groups, to Vehicle OEMs builders, to large, Medium and Small operators. PSV Glass also continues to service and support its fitting provider network of specialist independent glass Installation Companies. PSV Glass services its customers from its 9 specialist distribution and installation centres, each solely dedicated to passenger transport glazing and strategically placed throughout the UK and Ireland.

In a joint statement from PSV Glass and the Harris Group it was stated “Key to the launch of Higer is the extensive dealer network the Harris Group & PSV Glass have built up over many years in the UK and Ireland. Back-up and customer service is more important to us than anything else, our core business has been built on our reputation and providing the right service all the time. PSV Glass & The Harris Group will be providing a quality aftersales support programme aimed at providing essential cover for operators using Higer vehicles in Ireland & the United Kingdom”
